

SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY AGING STUDIES INSTITUTE

Aging Studies Institute Newsletter

January 2016

Inside this issue: 1. Gender & Society Podcast 2. ASI Events 3. ASI News

Madonna Harrington Meyer featured on Gender & Society Podcast

The Gender & Society podcast invited Dr. Harrington Meyer on as a guest to discuss her book , “Grandmother’s at Work: Juggling Families and Jobs.”

To listen to the podcast, go to:

<http://gas.sagepub.com/site/misc/Index/Podcasts.xhtml>

ASI EVENTS

Ageing Studies Institute Brown Bag Lunch Series

Feel free to bring your lunch

February 12, 12:00-1:00pm, 314 Lyman Hall

MFA in Collaborative Design Students

“Collaborative Design Thesis Investigations”

February 26, 12:00-1:00pm, 314 Lyman Hall

Lael Schooler

“Simple Heuristics and the Aging Decision Maker”

April 1, 12:00-1:00pm, 314 Lyman Hall

Corey White

“Using computational modeling to understand cognitive function across the lifespan”

ASI NEWS

ASI at GSA

Gerontological Society of America (GSA) colleagues congratulate Eric Kingson on his achievement of GSA's 2015 Donald P. Kent Award at a reception sponsored by ASI.

Faculty/Student Presentations at GSA

Military Service, Resilience, and Health in Later Life, Andrew London, Janet Wilmoth, Meredith Kleykamp

Trends in U.S. Women's Morbidity and Disability by Education Level, 1997-2014, Anna Zajacova, Jennifer Karas Montez

Explaining the Health Disadvantage of GED Recipients in Midlife Using Sibling Fixed-Effects Models, Anna Zajacova, Jennifer Karas Montez

Do Familistic Cultures Inhibit Demand for Long-Term Care? Public Policy Implications of Growing Diversity in the United States, Merril Silverstein, Rebecca Wang

The Influence of Childhood Health and Early Life Experience on Adult Health and Well-Being: Evidence from China, Cathy Gong, Hal Kendig, Merril Silverstein

Time for Sandwiches? Retirement Timing and Elderly Parents' Survival: A Register Based Study of Swedish Cohorts, Linda N. Kridahl, Merril Silverstein

Single-Headed Families' Economic Vulnerability and Reliance on Social Programs, Madonna Harrington Meyer, Ynesse Abdul-Malak

Gary Engelhardt is the recipient of a grant from the Social Security Administration

Gary Engelhardt has received a grant from the Social Security Administration for a project entitled "The Impact of Family and Social Networks on the Work and Retirement Behavior of Older Americans."

ASI featured in Syracuse University Magazine, "Explorations in Aging"

The SU Aging Studies Institute takes a multidisciplinary approach to the ever-evolving issues confronting older citizens. To read the full article written by Amy Speech, click on the following link.

<http://sumagazine.syr.edu/2015fall-winter/features/agingstudies.html>

Alejandro Garcia Displays Collection of Mexican Ceremonial Masks

Dr. Alejandro Garcia is congratulated at the closing ceremony of his exhibition that showcased some of his extensive collection of Mexican ceremonial masks at Onondaga Community College. The event was held in conjunction with Hispanic Heritage Month.

Syracuse University
Interdisciplinary Neuroscience Studies
2016 Seminar Series

Wednesday January 27, 2016
12:30-1:30pm, Shine 228B

Kirk Erickson, PhD

Associate Professor, Psychology
University of Pittsburg

Aging, Exercise and Brain Plasticity

Hosts: Drs. Kevin Heffernan and Donna Korol
Co-sponsored by The Aging Studies Institute

Submit your news items, announcements, awards, personal accomplishments, jobs, births, moving, etc. to

asi-news@maxwell.syr.edu